

5 Beds, 4 Baths - 3,660 sq ft - $ 910,000

Built amid natural surroundings, this beautiful Southbridge home offers the feel of a calming mountain retreat yet it's just 2 miles from UNC and Memorial Hospital. Nestled on a quiet cul-de-sac and immersed in mature hardwoods, it feels worlds away.

The bright, airy main floor is lined with floor-to-ceiling windows that invite nature in and create shifting patterns of light throughout the day. A stylish kitchen flows to an expansive deck, perfect for entertaining or peaceful moments outdoors. Relax on the screened porch with serene vistas of Morgan Creek, or step onto the neighborhood stairway to access the Morgan Creek Greenway Trail System, connecting to Merritt's Pasture, Bolin Creek, and Fan Branch Trails. Here, neighbors still walk the tree-lined streets, adding to the sense of community and calm.

Inside, unwind in the renovated owner's bath with a soaking tub, or enjoy the flexible lower level with kitchenette ideal for an office, guests, or recreation. Convenient to Duke University and Research Triangle Park, and part of the sought-after Chapel Hill-Carrboro City Schools (Culbreth walk zone), this home is a rare blend of natural beauty, comfort, and location.
