

38 DIAMOND A RANCH

Carbondale, CO

Nestled within the Colorado Roaring Fork Valley, sits a home in an outdoorsman paradise called Aspen Glen. The home is unmistakably estate like living. The park-like yard is almost an acre and is surrounded by golf holes 11, 12, 17, and 18. It sits on a pond, and features an expansive circular drive with a monument sized, Elk bronze, titled "The Big Bull", by Chris Navarro is #2/12, circa 1990, and is a show stopper. The home offers thoughtfully designed living spaces, surrounded by breathtaking mountain scenery, which appeals to nature lovers and is ideal for entertaining family and friends. When stepping outside, the property truly comes alive, with expansive outdoor living areas, and a recirculating water feature that lends an unmistakable serene quality to the grounds ideal for entertaining or unwinding in the jacuzzi hot tub under Colorado's vast evening skies or sitting by the fireplace. 17-mature blue spruce trees, 25' or taller, surround the perimeter, 2 wild flower gardens, 360 degrees of sweeping views of Mt. Sopris, Red Mountain, a pond, Crystal River Ranch and the Aspen Glen golf course.

The home, was entirely remodeled and completed in 2024 and is being sold with the new furnishings. Discover a professionally designed home where everyday living feels like a spa retreat blending comfort with a polished aesthetic that makes the home feel both inviting and distinctive. You are greeted by a huge roaring fireplace that separates the great room and family room. The 5,919 square foot interior is new and includes 4-En-suites, 2 1/2 extra bathrooms, 2 kitchens, media room, flex-space, extended guest stay areas, and even a dog bath for your furry critter. It has an oversized 3 1/2-car garage with built-ins, wine storage, and approximately 250 sq. ft. of indoor storage, as well as copper gutters. The HVAC systems, roof, electrical, plumbing and landscape were all completed with the remodel in 2024. And the home's location comes with property water rights for summer months of landscape care at no cost to the owner. From the customized finishes to the curated furnishings that give each room a sense of peace, purpose, and warmth. The home is ready to move-in for discerning buyers.

The new outdoor, Casteel furniture, a 2025 Evolution golf cart with lithium batteries, exercise equipment, TV's and sound systems and new furnishings will stay with the home.

Residents of Aspen Glen benefit from proximity to the Aspen Glen Club, (part of Invited Clubs), which offers memberships to the Jack Nicklaus designed world-class golf course (Ranked Top 100 in the US), and amenities that include fishing on the gold medal Roaring Fork River, swim, tennis, pickleball, golf simulators, new work out facilities, club dining and planned events. The Rio Grande scenic bike trail, is 42-miles long from Aspen to Glenwood Springs and is 1/10 of a mile from the front door. This exclusive gated community, and the beautifully manicured grounds sets the standard for refined Colorado living.

Whether you're savoring a lifestyle of relaxed mornings with mountain views, gardening in your private lawn spaces, or heading out for an afternoon of fly fishing, hiking, biking, or skiing, this home, community amenities, and location places you at the heart of it all.